MORE THAN REALIZED. Predictions Made Yesterday Regarding Change in Weather. The perdictions of the forecaster at the weather bureau yesterday to the effect that the mercury would fall to five degrees above zero by morning were more than realized. The thermometer registered three degrees above between 5 and 6 o'clock a. m. today. The prospects for immediate warm weather are not favorable at this time, according to the officials at the weather bureau, and moderately cold weather is likely to prevail in Washington for several days.

It has been warmer today owing to the southern winds, but lates this afternoon the winds were shifting to the north and the indications point to continued cold tonight. All over the country the effects of the cold wave are still in evidence, with only slight moderation in the temperature from conditions noted yesterday.

The jingle of sleigh bells were heard throughout the city last night and many cutters were swiftly drawn over the snow through the cool, crisp air. The night was ideal for sleighing and a large number of Washington residents improved the congre Washington residents improved the oppor-tunity to enjoy it, an opportunity that very seldom presents itself to the residents in

The snow has interferred with several building projects and construction works underway, work upon which has been aban-doned for a time because of the condition of the ground and the weather.
Warrants were issued from the Police Court today for a number of householders and property owners who have neglected to remove the snow which fell Monday night, from in front of their houses and lots throughout the city. The law requires that the snow shall be removed from the sidewalks four hours after it ceases falling, when it snows in the daytime and four hours after sunrise when a fall of snow oc-curs during the night.

BACK TO EXCISE BOARD. Application for Transfer of Bar Room

License.

Mr. A. B. Duvall, the corporation counsel has returned to the Commissioners the brief of Attorneys Lambert & Baker, filed with the excise board in connection with the application of Maurice J. Sheehan for a transfer of a bar room license from 127 H street portheast to 736 2d street northeast. The question arose as to whether or not the chapel in the Home for the Aged should be considered a place of religious worship in the meaning of the excise law, the new location being by one measurement within 400 feet of the home. Mr. Duvall says the question involved in Mr. Duvall says the question involved in this case is a question of fact, which the excise board will have to determine itself. "I am of the same opinion," he continues, "as expressed September 12, 1902, unless the fact is, as claimed in this brief, that the general public is excluded from the religious services which are held in the chapel. If this is the fact, then my opinion would be that this Home for the Aged is not a house of religious worship within the meaning of section 16 of the act of Congress regulating the sale of intoxicating liquors in the District of Columbia, as amended May 18, 1894." The matter now goes back to the excise board for its consideration and action.

COMMITTED TO JAIL. Joseph Mayer, Alias Frank Baer, Pleaded Not Guilty.

Joseph Mayer, alias Frank Baer, alias Joseph Huber, who claims to be the owner of a copper mine at Butte, Mont., and states that he has a deposit of $11,000 in a Chicago bank, was arraigned before Judge Kimball of the Police Court today on a charge of grand larceny and on advice of his counsel, Attorney W. E. Ambrose, pleaded not guilty and waived a preliminary nearing. Attorney Ambrose said that his ellent did not at this time desire to give oond and he was committed to jail. Mayer, who is a native of Switzerland, is about thirty-six years of age, and was arrested in Baltimore, Md., by Detectives O'Dea and Pratt of this city Monday afternoon as a result of a complaint made to the local police by Philip Stoll, a resident of the monumental city, who claimed that Mayer relieved him of $17 in German coins. When Scott's Emulsion makes the consumptive gain flesh it is curing his consumption.

A gold-plated watch, a silver watch, cigar case and a diamond ring of a total value of $47, while they were en route from that city to Washington Sunday last. Mayer renewed him the things which he is charged with stealing as security.

Let Us Demonstrate.

We think we have the most expen-We think we have the most expensively equipped rental department in the city. Is it because we have the largest rental business, or because we find it necessary in order to give the best service? Or is the magnitude of our rental business due to our fine equipment? We would like to answer these questions by demonstrating to you how we make property pay.

Several Stocks

Show marked indications of going materially higher at present time; their market action warrants immediate purchase. Write us if you are interested and we will be pleased to name them for you, presenting our reasons for anticipating higher prices for their shares, also what figures we expect them to reach. We will be pleased to buy and carry them for you, in multiples of 10 shares up to any amount, upon a marginal deposit with us of $5 per share. We have something to say about Cereals and Cotton also. At the moment the markets for all three staples are specially attractive, being full of money-making opportunities. We deal in them also. Our
